Who can play ?

The field will be made up of up to 48 professionals and we have 72 spots available for amateur golfers to compete in this event.

The tournament is open to men and women, all amateurs must have a current official handicap.

As part of the Australian PGA Legends tour this is a great opportunity for amateurs to play with some of the household names of professional golf at an exotic location in a relaxed atmosphere.

The Australian Legends Tour has over 80 tournaments in 2026 which are played in Australia, New Zealand and Fiji. It's not hard to see why the tour is so popular.

Players such as Andre Stolz, Scott Laycock, Peter Senior, Mike Harwood and Peter Fowler, have all been world class professionals winning numerous major championships around the globe over the past 40 years, they are just some of the top names that play regularly on the Legends Tour.

The Tournament & Courses

The first round of the tournament will be played at the fantastic newly redesigned Natadola Bay, this course has recently undergone a $4M upgrade and the results are fantastic. The remaining 2 tournament rounds will be held at the Denarau Golf and Racquet Club. This is more of a resort style course with water coming into play on many holes. It will provide challenges for golfers of all skill levels.

All competitors will play the three rounds of the tournament.

There will be one professional and 3 amateurs in each group for the first 2 rounds then the final round will a seeded draw on score with the leading two pros paired with the leading two amateurs and so forth through the field.
